You have entered a painting in the school art show. It is the best painting you've ever done. You're hoping to win first prize! Instead, you get an honorable mention. The first prize goes to a girl who lives across the street from you and rides your bus.	You are an excellent reader. Your cousin, who is in the same grade as you, is excited to tell you that he read a book that was more than one hundred pages. You've been reading much longer books for a couple of years.	You have won the school spelling bee! The final round was down to you and your best friend, who happens to be coming over to your house after school. When the two of you get in the car, your dad asks how the spelling bee went.
Your baseball team is up against the best team in the league. It's a close game, but your team loses because the left fielder fails to catch a fly ball. Afterward, some of your teammates are giving him a hard time.	The girls in your class are talking about what they will be wearing in the school choir program. Most of them are getting new dresses. When you ask your parents for a new dress, they say they cannot afford a new dress, but you can wear one that your sister has outgrown.	You are playing checkers with your grandfather. He wants to teach you his game strategy, but you aren't really interested. You're pretty sure that you are better at checkers than he is.
A new family comes to your church. You overhear someone say they are living in a homeless shelter. One of the kids comes to your Sunday school class. You notice that her clothes have stains on them, and her hair is messy.	On his way out the door, your dad asks you to tell your mom that all the milk is gone. Later in the day, your mom is surprised to discover that your dad drank the last of the milk and didn't mention it. You realize you forgot to give her the message.	Your daily chore assignment is to make your bed and take out the trash. You have done both of these things. Your mother has a headache and needs to lie down, so she asks you to load the dishwasher. This is not one of your chores.
